Newsletter of the Gamma Gamma Chapter of Lambda State November 2018

Our October 13th gathering was a fun group of 20 members present at our luncheon meeting at the beautiful Elgin Country Club. Four of our members displayed their lovely collections and talked about items they brought and how they got started collecting. Honora Quinn displayed her exquisite collection of plates, some of which are antiques. Glenda Klein-Mali brought her huge collection of foreign coins from the many countries she has traveled to. Joan Gazdic showed her beautiful needlepoint pieces, many of which are framed, and the quilts she has lovingly made over the years. Marge Fox talked about her doll collection, including her many “topsy-turvy” dolls.

We were pleased to have Joyce Dunne and Gretchen Mahin join us at our luncheon! We had the opportunity to present them with their 40 year member certificates. I'm happy to report they are both doing well.

The business portion of our meeting covered important committee information for the next few months, and we had a good discussion regarding the new changes to DKG which will be going into effect this year.

Thanks to Honora Quinn for setting up this Saturday meeting at her country club. It would be nice to return to the Elgin Country Club again.

COMMITTEE REPORTING

SOCIETY BUSINESS: (Joan Gazdic)

Nothing new to report at this time. Feel free to email Joan Gazdic(jmtg@att.net) if you have any questions about our chapter rules, especially any recent changes or addendums. Please email Linda Stolt (lindast05@hotmail.com) if you have a question regarding budget, expenses, vouchers and reimbursement.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE: (Rose Karner)

The emphasis this year is to encourage more members to attend our programs and to participate more in our chapter activities. We also want to maintain contact with all our members and encourage members to invite guests to the meetings and social events.

It is not too early to be thinking of future nominees for membership! We all know women educators who would add so much to our organization! This year and next, the Program Committee has scheduled interesting programs and enjoyable social events. Invite five people to our meetings and events, especially to the Holiday Auction! Hopefully, these educators will want to become members of our awesome chapter! We need to start submitting new member applications in January. A Membership Application is attached. Please give an application to someone(or more) who you want to nominate for membership.

Remember, DKG International has expanded its definition of potential members to now include any woman who is a paid educator. This opens the door to women who instruct in businesses, trade schools and religious organizations.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE: (Cheryl Keifer)

Hopefully by now, everyone has received her yearbook! The yearbook is a good source of information for our chapter's 2018-19 year. Please refer to it for all you need to know this year.

If you've found any errors in the book or have other changes in your personal data throughout the year, please call or email Cheryl Keifer (ckeifer@gmail.com / 847-305-9404) ASAP. She will update the data base and alert Kathy to change what's online and Executive Board for member contact purposes (newsletter, schedule changes, emergency announcements, etc.).

Also, remember that you can now find everything that's in the book at our Gamma Gamma website thanks to our roving webmaster, Kathy Muench.

PROGRAM COMMITTEE: (Mary Balk and Honora Quinn)

OUR HOLIDAY AUCTION WILL SOON BE HERE!! This is our biggest and most important fund-raiser of the year. If you can't attend, please consider a significant donation. *Sandy and Denise were recently involved in a "Go To Meeting" with Dr. LeBlanc, Jennifer Stringfellow, and Joan Rog. Outcomes of the meeting included: An invitation to write an article for the Newscaster, an invitation to present our chapter's mentor timeline at the state spring convention, and the "official okay" to invite our four junior and senior grant recipients to become a part of our chapter: Lauren Hamen, Brittany Moran, Karly Grapenthin, and Eden Schultz. (See a short bio of the girls below. Their mentors will share more at our December meeting; where a vote by the chapter will be taken.)

The first few weeks of November will be busy ones for Denise and Sandy as they visit the Educational Internship Classes in School District 211. They plan on sharing with the students what DKG is all about, the chapter scholarships and grants that are available, our chapter's mentoring program, the new collegiate membership opportunities, and extending an invitation to the girls and their teachers to visit chapter meetings.

NEWS FROM LAMBDA STATE: Submitted by Denise Pawelczyk

Per Helen Popovich, PRP, International Parliamentarian, Updated 10/3/18:

"The 2018 convention amended the DKG Constitution to include a new classification of Society members; collegiate members (Constitution, Article III, B.4). Because the constitution determines who is eligible for membership in the Society, state organization bylaws limiting those classifications are now null and void. Chapters can currently induct collegiate members.

Collegiate members must pay international annual dues of $20.00 (International Standing Rules 4.11). Note, however, that the Constitution, Article IV, Section B. 1 & 2 was not amended to require collegiate members to pay either an induction fee or a scholarship fee.

The state organization has the authority to determine the amount of collegiate members' state organization dues, however, the amount "shall be an amount determined in accordance with the state organization bylaws" (Constitution Article IV. A. 2). Thus, collegiate members may not be charged state organization dues unless the bylaws are amended to include a provision for collegiate members' dues.

The chapter has the authority to set the amount of the chapter dues, however the amount shall be "an amount determined in accordance with the rules set by the chapter" (Constitution, Article IV, A. 3). Thus, collegiate members may not be charged chapter dues unless the chapter rules are amended to include a provision for collegiate members' dues."

We are Key Women Educators Impacting Education Worldwide – always *Expect Great Things!
