

THE ANNE FUSSELL RECRUITMENT GRANT and
THE GAMMA GAMMA EDUCATIONAL RECRUITMENT GRANT

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International is an organization with the purpose of honoring women educators seeking to advance professionalism in education. Gamma Gamma, a local chapter, offers two $1500.00 non-renewable recruitment grants. One grant is in memory of member, Anne Fussell; the second grant is offered by our local Gamma Gamma Chapter. Only District 211 female, senior students pursuing a career in education will be awarded one of these grants. (By completing this application, candidates are eligible for either one of the grants, and will additionally be provided a Gamma Gamma mentor)

Criteria for evaluating each applicant is as follows:

1. Interest in a career in education
2. Scholarship standing
3. Involvement in school activities
4. Involvement in community activities

The following packet of documents must be electronically filed to the email address below, and received on or before MONDAY, APRIL 12, 2021 (firm deadline). The recruitment grant will be presented on the evening of Thursday, May 6, 2021.

1. Completed typed application.
2. An official transcript-showing your high school credits, grades, class rank and ACT or SAT score.
3. Two letters of reference from a teacher, counselor, or personal reference.
4. Email completed packet to: dreismom2@yahoo.com

Only complete applications will be reviewed. All supporting documentation must be included with the application. Absolutely no materials will be accepted after the electronic filing date indicated above. Scholarship applications will be kept for seven (7) years after which time all materials will be destroyed.

Applicants will be contacted electronically once their packet of documents is received, as well as after the selection committee has made a decision. (Winning applicants will also receive a phone call instructing them about the grant presentation dinner.)

Thank you for applying, and we wish you well in your college career!

Sincerely yours,

Denise Pawelczyk,

Educational Excellence Chair—Scholarship Division,

Gamma Gamma Chapter #75,

DKG IL State Organization
